IMBUKO | CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2016

AFRICA IN A BOTTLE!

The very first brand produced by us and still the flagship of the company. Imbuko has made a name for itself across the world. Already selling in 38 countries worldwide, it is about to break into a few new markets.

The Imbuko brand is still the pride and joy of the company and especially Theunis van Zyl, who produced the very first Imbuko wines. To this day he takes special care in selecting the wines for the Imbuko label to guarantee consistency and quality that this brand has become known for. Hence, it is trusted by our clients as a quality, yet affordable wine, enjoyed by connoisseurs and general wine lovers alike.

Tasting Notes:

A superb Cabernet Sauvignon with fresh pepper and young red berry on the nose. Well balanced with lovely plum flavours to complement the long smooth finish. Perfect partner with most roast meats, a good steak and an excellent choice for your next barbeque.
